Wedding.

[Correspondence of the ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.] MABSHALL, Fauquier county, Vr., July 3, 1889 - Tuesday evening Trinity Episcopal Church here was filled to its utmost capacity by a brilliant assemblage to witness an event of social interest, it being the marriege of a most attractive ; oung lady, Mies Figience Harry to Mr. Littleton P. Brown, one of Loudoun's most popular gentlemen Promptly at 8:30 the bridal party entered the church building in the following order: Miss Carrie Harry with Mr. Lewis Brown, a brother of the groom, of Richmond; Miss Anna R Churchill, of Front Royal, with Mr. Chas. Chamblin, of Loudoun; Miss Ida Jenkins, of Warren White Sulphur Springs, with Dr. Henry B. Frost, as attendants.
Next, and preceding the bride and groom,
came Miss Sallie Cross, of Washington, D.
C., a sweet little Miss of 13 years, screwing lovely roses, Mendelssohn's Wedding March in the meantime being skilfully executed on the organ by Miss Sallie Roszell. Advancing to the obergel rail, the bride and groom ing to the chaucel rail, the bride and groom were met by the rector, Rev. James Grammer, who, in a beautiful ceremony, made two loving hearts as one. The chancel in front and rear was a mass of exquisite flowers and evergreens, while bouquets here and there gave the whole a lovely appearance. This was the work of the Misses Norris, the Misses Frost, Mrs Baker, Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Walker, who displayed ex-cellent taste. The lovely bride was dressed in full evening costume of white surah silk en train, heavily trimmed with plumes, and carried an exquisite bouquet of Maresohal Neil roses, and she was was an ideal picture of beauty and grace. The groom was attired in black, Prince Albert coat, silk tie, &c. The newly married pair, with a host of friends, repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where the hours passed swiftly in social converse until 11 o'clock when refreshments were served. The popular bride was the recipient of a large number of useful and beautiful wedding gifts, consisting of china tea sets, all ver were, glass ware, etc. In passing we would say that a more handsome array of are beauty and intellect of Fauquier, Loudout and Warren counties. Mr. and Mrs. Brown left this morning for Richmond and other cities on an extended bridal tour. They will make their home, on their return in Loudoun county. We wish them both unalloyed happiness, and may they have pleasant sailing down the stream of wedded ISABELLA'S FIVE HUSBANDS.-Samuel Nickson appeared before Register Cobb at ed a marriage license for himself and Isabella Davis. The license was promptly issued, but before it had been used it was discovered that the woman already had five husbands. She was arraigned before a Justice of the Peace. She is now only about 32 years old, but has a son 16 years old, who testified against her. She married the first time at the age of 15 and has lived with no one husband more than eighteen months. She wa married first in 1872 to Amos Johnson and separated from him the following year. In 1875 she married S. B. McCane and lived with him until Christmas of 1876. Again in 1878 she married Rev. Abram McE'more and left him in 1879. In 1885 she married Paul B. Hatton and left bim the same year. She married Wm. R. Ferguson last year, but lived with him only a few weeks.

Paul R. Hatton, after being separated from her, married Jane Alexander, and he, too, is now to answer a charge of bigamy. The woman was bound over for trial.
